

Chain Drop

The chain drop can be a decorative alternative in situations where a regular downpipe is not suitable, or where the designer desires a unique feature or look for the home.

Surface tension causes the water to follow the chain to a ground drain or a bed of gravel.

Chain lengths should be limited to 1 to 1-1/2 storey heights due to splashing.

